I'm seeking relief staff

I am currently seeking mature and suitably experienced persons who are available to relieve for my regular staff at my electorate office, based in Duncraig.

The hours are not predictable, so the job would suit someone who works at home and can be available, sometimes at short notice, to relieve in the office when staff are ill, or booked advance for longer periods while staff are on leave. Excellent hourly remuneration with 20% commuted allowance in lieu of leave and superannuation.

Required skills: General office skills. The ability to deal sensitively with my constituents, work independently, manage mail, phone calls, computer literacy (must touch type and be able to run the Office 2007 program, including Outlook for booking appointments) and a strong sense of confidentiality.

Contact: My office manager, Genevieve Lyon on 9246 1800 to discuss further, or send her a short expression of interest by email to genevieve.lyon@mp.wa.gov.au.

Dive in for a dollar-a-day!

Parents are urged to enrol their children in vacation swimming classes for only a 'Dollar-A-Day'.

VacSwim teaches our children essential aquatic skills including safety knowledge in, on and around water, personal survival skills and emergency and rescue procedures and given our climate and lifestyle, learning to swim is one of the best practical skills a parent can give their child.

A special pass for families with three children will provide even greater savings at just $27.50 for the 10-day program and $14.00 for the five-day.

To enrol for VacSwim go to www.det.wa.edu.au.
